++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Rain spreading from south, clearing to showers during the afternoon.

Today:
Area of occasionally heavy rain with strengthening winds soon spreading from south to reach all before mid-morning. This clears northwards from mid-day as sharp showers follow from the south and winds ease. Maximum temperature 11 deg C (52 deg F).

Tonight:
Clear spells and some scattered showers, but across western areas of Central and Tayside these turn frequent towards dawn, as freshening westerly winds develop. Minimum temperature 4 deg C (39 deg F).

Monday:
A day of showers, these quite frequent and occasionally heavy, particularly in the west, before easing from late afternoon. Winds strong westerly. Maximum temperature 11 deg C (52 deg F).

Outlook for Tuesday to Thursday:
Mainly dry, bright in Central Belt, as generally northerly winds hold bulk of showers across northern areas. Here outbreaks occasional Tuesday, isolated Wednesday, mostly died out Thursday as pressure builds.
